EACH PRISON IN THE COLONY.

QUESTIONS.

ANSWERS.

I. If the prison is on a separate system, is the separation complete? And if not, what is the separation enforced by day and night respectively?

The Prison is on a separate system as far as practicable. Occasionally when there is an increase in the number of prisoners it is sometimes necessary to put prisoners in association.

II. If not on the separate system, what provision is there for the supervision of the prisoners while in association?

In the Male Prison by Warders.
In the Female Prison by Matrons.

III. How many cells are there; and how many associated wards?

In the Prison there are 36 Cells, 1 association ward, and an Infirmary.

IV. Taking the average number of prisoners in gaol, how many cubic feet of space are there for each prisoner during the hours of sleep?

Males 1,059.
Females 1,271.

V. How are the prisoners classified?

Into two classes as follows:—
1. Convicted criminal prisoners.
2. Prisoners committed on remand, for trial, for want of sureties, or for safe custody.
Convicted criminal prisoners are divided in three classes for diet, and four for labour, according to their sentences and earnings by marks.

VI. Is penal labour—that is, labour by treadmill, crank, or shot drill—in force?

No.

VII. If so, during what periods of imprisonments, in respect of what classes of prisoners, and during how many hours, is such penal labour enforced? In stating hours of treadwheel labour, give, first, the total time on and off at the wheel, &c.; secondly, the length of spells and intervals of rest.

There is no penal labour by treadmill or shot drill in force.

VIII. What kind of labour, other than penal labour is in use?

In the Male Prison, breaking stones, making coffins for Hospitals and for burial of paupers, making uniform for Prison Officers, making and mending clothing for prisoners, making chocolate for the Prison and other Public Institutions, and cleaning work in the Prison.

In the Female Prison, washing clothes for Prison and Public Institutions, and, when labour is available, breaking stones.

IX. If the prisoners are employed beyond the walls of the gaol, state—

Yes.

1. On what kind of work they are so employed?

Quarrying stone and carrying it to the Prison. Cleaning, etc., the grounds of Government House, and other Government Institutions, cleaning public cemeteries, ravines, etc., and occasionally working for the Colonial Engineer's Department.

2. How are they supervised?

The prisoners work in gangs of 6 to 8, and are supervised by Warders.

1914-15—none.
1915-16—none.

4. How the profits of their labour are accounted for?

No charge is made for labour, all work being done for Government. Small profits occur from the sale of broken stone, mending boots, making coffins and manufacturing chocolate, which are paid into the Treasury monthly. These profits for the year 1916-17 amounted to £122 8 5.

SAINT LUCIA.Annual Report on the Prisons for the year 1916-17.

ROYAL GAOL,
St. Lucia,
5th September, 1917.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following report on the Royal Gaol for the year 1916-17.

1. There were 43 prisoners at the end of the year—29 males and 14 females. During the year 526 were admitted—373 males, 146 females, and 9 juveniles; and 39 males and 5 females were remaining at the end of the year.

2. The 526 admissions included 50 detained under the Defence of the Colony Regulations, 82 remands, 20 committed for trial by the Royal Court, and 374 for penal imprisonment. The latter come under the following heads:—

For Statutory offences	290
„ Military „ .. .	84

3. These were committed from the respective Courts as under:

	Royal Court.	I. District Court.	II. District Court.	III. District Court.	Military Tribunals.	Total.
Males	18	114	9	14	84	239
Females	...	130	3	2	...	135
	18	244	12	16	84	374

4. Of these 53 had been to prison once previously, 22 twice, and 103 three times or more, making a total of 178 recidivists. Of the Military prisoners, 60 were from the St. Lucia Unit, W. I. O. C.

5. The daily average in prison was 43·12—33·57 males, 9·23 females and ·32 juvenile. The highest number was 67 on the 21st March, and the lowest 30 on the 18th October. Omitting those detained for breaches of military discipline the committals for penal imprisonment were 113 less than in the year before. In spite of the falling off in the number of committals, the daily average increased, owing to a larger proportion of long sentences. A brief summary of the Magisterial sentences is given below.

Year.	7 days and under.	Over 7 days but not exceeding 14 days.	Over 14 days but not exceeding 1 month.	Exceeding one month.
1916-17	26·48	26·13	28·92	18·47
Average for past 5 years	32·20	27·83	25·51	10·38

Classification of Offences.

6. The different kinds of offences for which sentences of imprisonment were imposed are shown in Appendix "A." There were 18 committals from the Royal Court, being the same as in the previous year, and two less than the average for the past ten years, omitting the rioters of 1907. For the First time in many years no woman was committed for an indictable offence. Of those received from the District Courts assault and battery, disorderly behaviour, fighting, obscene and abusive language, and throwing missiles accounted for 48 per cent., simple larceny for 14 per cent., and prædial larceny for 16 per cent. This is the first time that prædial larceny has reached this high figure.

Value of Labour.

7. The estimated value of labour done by prisoners during the year was £457 17s. Outdoor gangs cleaned and kept in order the grounds attached to Government House, cleaned Government Offices, periodically, and quarried and conveyed to the Prison about 455 tons of stones. Washing clothes for the male and female prisoners, and Victoria Hospital, provided sufficient employment in the female section throughout the greater part of the year, but when the number of prisoners admitted of stone-breaking being carried on the strongest and worst behaved of them were put to this work. Breaking stones constituted the chief employment within the Male Prison. Cutting firewood, cleaning, cooking and making chocolate gave work to about half a dozen, daily, while three, or so, were engaged in the workshops, where the making and mending of clothing for the Institution, the providing of coffins for the burial of paupers, and the repairing of boots for warders, prisoners, and police were attended to.

8. The Chocolate prepared at the prison is second to none produced in the Colony, and is supplied to the public institutions at a cheaper rate than it could be obtained elsewhere. Another branch of employment in which prison labour might be usefully directed is baking. If a bakery were established it could supply at a much reduced cost all the bread required for the public Institutions and the saving effected would in a short time cover the out-lay in the first instance. It would also prove a great convenience to the Institutions, as the bread could be made to suit the various diet scales and thus save the daily necessity of cutting and weighing entailed by existing arrangements.

Health of Prison.

9. The Health of the Institution was satisfactory as usual. The average on the sick list was 1'02. One death occurred. The Medical Officer's report is attached, which gives an analysis of the diseases and cases treated.

Staff.

10. Major Golding being still on active service, I acted as Inspector of Prisons during the year, and Mr. Theobalds continued to act as Keeper. The work of establishment was carried on in the customary routine, and strict discipline was at all times maintained.

APPENDIX M.

Medical Officer's Report.

The Acting Inspector of Prisons.

Sir,

I beg to submit the Medical Report on the Royal Gaol for the year ended 31st March, 1917.

The total number of cases prescribed for and returned to labour was 601 : excused labour, 2 ; examined for punishment, 93 ; examined on remand, 115 ; examined on admission after conviction, 369.

The daily average on the sick list was 1·02. There were 2 cases treated in the Gaol Infirmary, 59 in the cells, and 4 were sent to Victoria Hospital for treatment. Explanatory tables are attached. There was one death due to degeneration of heart muscle following syphilis and ankylostomiasis.

Among the staff 102 days were lost through illness—chiefly of one officer who is no longer in the service—i.e., 11·33 days per head.

The Ankylostomiasis figures are very low in this report, as the International Health Board very kindly relieved the Prison Surgeon of the treatment of this disease.

I have, etc.,

ALEX. KING, M.B., CH.B., D.P.H.,

Castries, 9th April, 1917.

REPORT OF THE MEDICAL SUPERINTENDENT OF THE LUNATIC
ASYLUM FOR THE YEAR 1916-17.

TOC LUNATIC ASYLUM,

St. Lucia, 30th August, 1917.

His Honour

The Administrator.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit, for the information of His Excellency the Governor, and for transmission to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies, the Medical Report on the Lunatic Asylum for the year ended 31st March, 1917.

Seventy-one patients remained at the end of March, 1916. Fifteen male and nine female patients were admitted, six male and five female patients were discharged, and two males and five females died. Of the eleven patients discharged, 3 were cured, 7 relieved, and one transferred to her native colony, St. Vincent.

The daily average number of patients was 74·6, and the number remaining in the Asylum at the end of the year was 77.

The daily average number of male patients employed in the Gardening, etc., was 14, and the daily average of female patients engaged in Domestic work was 12·3.

The general health of the inmates was good and the men placed a considerable amount of extra land under cultivation during the year.

No patients were mechanically restrained and this mode of restraint may be said to be abolished. The number of patients requiring restraint by seclusion has become so small that the need for increased cell accommodation has totally gone.

The causes of insanity in this colony are difficult to determine, chiefly owing to the difficulty of getting correct family and personal histories. Acquired syphilis does not lead to much insanity here owing to the infrequency with which the central nervous system is attacked, but it is probable that the children of syphilitic parents are frequently mentally unstable, or develop epilepsy, only to later form a considerable proportion of those who become insane.

Epilepsy is the apparent cause of the insanity in 10 out of the 77 patients remaining at the end of the year.

An analysis of the 24 patients who were admitted during the year shows the following causes :—Five were due to Senility, 3 to Epilepsy, 2 to Hereditary predisposition, 1 to alcoholism, 1 to Syphilis and Pellagra, 1 to Cerebral softening following Hemorrhage, 1 to worry, 3 mad delusions of persecution associated with 'Obeah,' and in 7 no cause could be assigned.

I have, &c.,

ALAN KIDD, M.D., B.Ch..

Medical Superintendent.

SAINT LUCIA.

Annual Report on the Prisons for the year 1917-18.

PRISON OFFICE,
3rd August, 1918.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following report on the Prisons for the year 1917-18.

Departmental changes, etc.

2. On the 5th April one Warder was, after a service of 12 years, invalided on account of ill-health, and discharged on a small pension. His place was filled by the appointment of a Probationary Warder.

An unusually large number of prisoners in custody necessitating an increase in the prison Staff, an additional Warder was appointed on the 3rd May.

The conduct of the Probationary Warder appointed in April not having proved satisfactory, he was discharged on the 27th October, and another Probationary Warder appointed in his stead.

The Assistant Matron, who already had a long experience of Prison work was promoted Matron, on 1st August, and an Assistant Matron to fill her place was appointed, on probation.

I regret to have to record the death of the Matron, Eugenie Rose Letang, after a service of 24½ years in the Royal Gaol. She had been ailing for some time, but with that devotion to duty which characterised her always, she stuck to her post and performed her duties almost to the last. By her death the Department has lost an efficient, loyal, and zealous Officer.

Discipline.

3. There were nine reports during the year against Prison Officers, none of which were of a serious nature. On the whole discipline amongst the Officers was well maintained.

Prisoners.

4. There were 550 persons committed during the year. 410 of these had been convicted of various breaches of the law ; but the remainder were merely detained for safe custody pending their trial. Of the convicted prisoners, 29 males and 8 females were sent from the Royal Court, 180 males and 186 females, from the District Courts, and 44 males from Courts-martial. The average length of Royal Court sentences was 18 months, of District Courts, 32 days, and of Courts-martial, 26 days.

Licence.

5. 4 Convicts having earned the number of marks prescribed by the "Marks System" for remission of portion of sentence, were released under Police supervision.

Corporal Punishment.

6. Breaches of Prison discipline, though numerous, were not of that serious nature for which corporal punishment is prescribed.

The corporal punishment ordered by the Courts is shown below.

Court.	Offence.	Punishment.
Royal Court.	Causing grievous harm.	Whipping—12 strokes.
Do.	Wounding.	Flogging—6 lashes
Do.	do.	" —6 "
First District Court	Prædial larceny	" —8 "
Do.	do.	" —6 "
Do.	do.	" —6 "

One of the floggings ordered by the Royal Court was not carried out, it having been found that the prisoner was a leper. He was then transferred to the Leper Asylum. The other punishments were inflicted under the supervision of the Prison Medical Officer.

Escapes.

7. One prisoner who was awaiting trial escaped from custody, but was recaptured within three days.

General.

8. Amongst the prisoners admitted each year are many confirmed idlers—people who have never worked, and who never intend to work, not even in prison, if they can possibly avoid it. The presence during the year of an unusually large number of such prisoners has resulted in the highest number of punishments, for prison offences, on record. 70 per cent. of these punishments were imposed for idling, or failing to perform the allotted task of labour.

I may mention that the tasks prescribed by the Prison Rules are not by any means excessive. They are well within the capacity of anyone willing to work; but in spite of this some prisoners will suffer almost every form of punishment allowed by the Rules rather than perform a fair day's work. In nine cases out of ten these people are undergoing imprisonment for petty or prædial larceny: in short, laziness is the indirect cause of their being in Prison.

There is another class of prisoner whom it is not so easy to understand, it is the habitual offender who, during his imprisonment, gives absolutely no trouble. He is invariably an excellent worker, and his general conduct so good that he is seldom, if ever, reported. Yet he does not seem to take to honest toil outside the Prison. No sooner has he been released than he starts again in his favourite line, be it cattle-stealing, house-breaking, or larceny. Needless to say, these remarks, as regard Prison conduct, do not apply to all habitual offenders, particularly women, the majority of whom are incorrigible, and give no end of trouble to the Matron and her one Assistant. One of these had been to Prison 9 times during the year, the last commitment being her 94th. She is about 36 years of age.

Lately, habitual offenders are not allowed to work outside the Prison more than can be helped, and it is hoped the experiment, now tried for the first time, may teach them to set a higher value on their liberty when next they obtain it.

Statistics.

9. Beside the Medical Officer's Report, there are appended tables which show (1) the various offences for which prisoners were imprisoned, (2) the periods of imprisonment to which they were sentenced, (3) their nationality and whether illiterate or otherwise, (4) ages, (5) Occupations, (6) religious denomination, (7) number of convicted prisoners recidivists, periods of imprisonment, and comparing them with those of the preceding five years, (8) number and description of punishments for prison offences, (9) a statement of the labour performed by prisoners, (10) cost of prisoners' maintenance, separated under three heads—Supervision, Dietry, Clothing and other charges—for the ten years ending 1917-18, (11) total expenditure on the Prison for 1917-18, and (12) a statement of the receipts and expenditure in respect of Prison manufactures.

I have, etc.,

T. RYAN,
Ag. Inspector of Prisons.

His Honour
The Administrator.

Medical Officer's Report.

The Acting Inspector of Prisons.

Sir,

I beg to submit the Medical Report on the Royal Gaol for the year ended 31st March, 1918.

The total number of cases prescribed for and returned to labour was 893 : excused labour 3 ; examined for punishment 275 ; examined on remand 88 ; examined on admission after conviction 405.

The daily average on the sick-list was 0.709. There were 2 cases sent to Victoria Hospital for treatment, 1 to the Yaws Hospital and 1 to the Leper Asylum. There were 2 cases treated in the Gaol Infirmary and 62 in the cells. Explanatory tables are attached.

Among the staff 172 days were lost through illness—chiefly of an officer since deceased—i.e., 17.2 days per head.

The Prison Surgeon attended whilst 3 men were flogged with the Regulation Cat.

There were no deaths in the prison.

The International Health Board has kindly continued the treatment of Ankylostomiasis in prisoners.

I have, etc.,

The erection of two more Steam-boiling Lime Factories have been completed and the Government Factory has been increased to double its working capacity.

Progress of any Improvements previously reported.

General extension in coconut cultivation continues. The area under sugar cultivation is estimated at 3,500 to 4,000 acres. Nearly all the small sugar mills are manufacturing syrup instead of muscovado sugar and the rise in price of syrup has brought about a material increase in the areas devoted to sugar-cane. Lime cultivation has not increased much during the year. The exports of lime products reached the value of £14,261—double that of any previous year.

ANSWERS.

The Prison is on a separate system as far as practicable. It is not necessary to confine prisoners in association during the day. At night three prisoners were confined in each of the larger cells and during this time all the cells were under the supervision of an officer on duty.

II. If not on the separate system, what provision is there for the supervision of the prisoners while in association?

In the Male Prison by Warders.
In the Female Prison by Matrons.

III. How many cells are there; and how many associated wards?

In the Male Prison there are 36 Cells, 1 associated ward, and an Infirmary.
In the Female Prison there are 16 Cells, but no associated wards.

*IV. Taking the average number of prisoners in gaol, how many cubic feet of space are there for each prisoner during the hours of sleep?
And what superficial area?*

Males 586·57.
Females 684·16.

SAINT LUCIA.

Annual Report on the Prisons for the year 1918-19.

PRISONS OFFICE,

31st August, 1919.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following report on the Prison Department for 1918-19.

2. Nothing occurred during the year which calls for special comment.

Prisoners.

Altogether, 463 were committed—207 males and 146 females to undergo penal imprisonment, and 106 males and 16 females on remand. Included in the “remands” were 25 persons—14 males and 11 females—, suspected to be of unsound mind, who were detained for Medical supervision.

Daily Average.

4. The daily average in Prison was 78·39. This is the highest during the past 10 years, and may be accounted for by a comparatively large number of committals from the Royal Court in the preceding year.

Mark System

5. One prisoner was released on Ticket-of-Leave.

Offences for which Prisoners were sentenced.

6. With one or two exceptions, they vary little from those of previous years. The committals from the Royal Court are rather less than usual, and only two cases of drunkenness are recorded. Details will be found in “Appendix A.”

Corporal Punishment.

7. The only corporal punishment carried out in the Prison was a “whipping” (6 strokes with a tamarind rod) ordered by the First District Court. Minor breaches of Prison discipline were fairly numerous, as will be seen by the table of punishments—“Appendix H.”

Labour.

8. Details of the work performed by prisoners are given in “Appendix I.”

Staff.

9. On the 15th October 3 Warders were retired on gratuity, and 1 was transferred to the Police Force. Since then their duties at the Prison are being performed by Police Constables.

Statistics.

10. The usual tabular statements are appended.

I have, etc.,

T. RYAN,

Ag. Inspector of Prisons.

His Honour
The Administrator.

Medical Officer's Report.

The Acting Inspector of Prisons.

Sir,

I beg to submit the medical report on the Royal Gaol for the year ended 31st March, 1919.

The total number of cases prescribed for and returned to labour was 793; examined for punishment 335; examined on remand 83; examined on admission after conviction 344.

The daily average on the sick-list was 2·07. This abnormally high figure was due to the presence in gaol of an old recidivist suffering from disseminated sclerosis. Four cases were sent to Victoria Hospital for treatment. Two cases were treated in the Gaol Infirmary, and ninety-eight in the cells. Explanatory tables are attached. Influenza appeared in the Prison early in December. Six male warders and thirty-nine male prisoners developed the disease. Not one female was affected, and only one case was really severe.

A separate return is appended to the report for the first time showing all fresh cases of venereal disease which were seen during the year.

Among the staff 86 days were lost through illness, i.e., 7·81 days per head. One officer died.

The Prison Surgeon attended whilst one boy was whipped with a tamarind rod.

No death occurred in the prison. One birth occurred.

The International Health Board has kindly continued the treatment of Ankylostomiasis to prisoners.

I have, etc.,

ALEX KING, M.B., CH.B., D.P.H.,
Prison Surgeon.
